

Urban Planner (Statutory Team)

- 1 Permanent Full Time Urban Planner position
- Fast paced and interesting environment with opportunity to build your expertise in land use controls and other associated areas
- Work collaboratively with many different areas of the organisation

At Bayside Council we are creating a workplace that meets Council's business needs and the needs of our employees and customers. We have competitive salaries and conditions, a learning and continuous improvement focus, an array of 'family friendly' leave arrangements, close proximity to public transport and a supportive flexible workplace.

We currently have an excellent opportunity in our Strategic Planning Business Unit for Urban Planner, working as part of the Statutory Planning team. This role would see you developing and reviewing statutory and land use plans to ensure that planned growth is appropriate in scale and location and delivers community benefit across our LGA. Bayside Council is undergoing a period of growth and has a number of high profile and complex Planning Proposals and Priority Precincts.

You have a thorough understanding of the complexities of strategic planning as it applies to the Local Government space. Bayside Council is positioned in an exciting growth corridor in Sydney's South-east. The position will offer the successful candidate significant experience in major projects, interaction with key players in the industry, exposure to complex issues such as employment, transport and housing supply in an area which is a key trade gateway to the nation (i.e. airport and port).

The role would suit an appropriately qualified and motivated individual who is ready to take an exciting step forward in their strategic planning career. Your passion and enthusiasm will allow you to tackle to complex issues stated above in an innovative and sustainable manner. You will also be comfortable providing advice to all levels of staff in a collaborative manner to ensure positive community outcomes.

Your ability to work in an accurate and expeditious manner and your previous recent experience in a fast paced role as an urban planner will see you successfully able to handle the fluctuating workloads of this role and deliver quality on time outcomes. You will have an eye for detail and a commitment to excellence in governance including record keeping and reports to all levels of the organisation and government.

You will have appropriate tertiary qualifications together with the ability to demonstrate extensive experience in the management of Planning Proposals, including engagement with all stakeholders as well as commitment to achieving high quality built form outcomes for the community. Your highly developed analytical skills coupled with robust communication skills will underpin your ability to be successful in your new role.

Serving Our Community

The successful candidate will be self-motivated with the ability to demonstrate their commitment to teamwork and the provision of exceptional outcomes for the community. If you are someone who is highly motivated to continuously learn then we want to hear from you.

How to Apply:

Your application should include an up-to-date resume (max 5 pages) and a covering letter (max 3 pages), outlining how your skills and experience are relevant to the position and meet the essential and desirable criteria of the role.

Applications will be accepted by mail, e-mail recruitment@bayside.nsw.gov.au or fax on (02) 9562 1777. Please ensure that the file name for each document submitted includes the Job Title.

Closing Date: Sunday, 11 February 2018

Job Type: 1 Permanent Full time

Salary Range: $84,830 to $95,010 per annum

Enquiries: Josh Ford – Coordinator Statutory Planning (9562 1634)
